

THINK OFFICIATING IS A CHALLENGE?

TRY OFFICIATING A BASKETBALL GAME BETWEEN THE MARINES!!!

MobCom Marine Corps Mobilization Command in KCMO has scheduled league play that begins soon. We have weekday, mid-day games available for officials that are registered and certified by MOKANREF.COM.

Games are played Monday through Thursday from 11:30 am – 12:30 pm on the campus of Calvary College in South Kansas City, MO. This one hour game will challenge your fitness and your ability to manage a game between men who are trained to be intense.

If you have the officiating skills it takes to hang with this group of hard charging Marine Devil Dogs that run the floor like greyhounds, click on the “Contact The MOKANREF Staff” link and send an e-mail to the commissioner expressing your interest.
